J. Donald Monan Award for Leadership in Judicial Administration

Presented to Honorable James F. McHugh

Appeals Court Justice James F. McHugh was named Special Advisor to the Chief Justice for Administration and Management in June, 2004. His leadership in partnership with the Trial Court Office of Information Services has revitalized the implementation of MassCourts, a single case management platform for all court departments, which will replace 14 systems.

Special Award for Excellence in Judicial Administration

Presented to The Court Metrics Working Group

This group of 19 representatives from all Trial Court Departments accomplished the groundbreaking and challenging implementation of the compilation, reporting and informed use of four CourTool metrics focused on timeliness and expedition. These measurements are essential to the accountability and ongoing performance assessment of Trial Court operations.
